Boondocks American Whiskey 95 proof

Light in color but rich, nuanced and complex.

Fruitiness and exotic spices enhance some of the more subtle aromatic characteristics like the toasted marshmallow oak barrel notes.

Mouthfeel is creamy and buttery with long pleasant finish. Overall the whiskey is spicy and warm but does not burn and is sweet like cotton candy.

American Whiskey Cask Strength 127proof

At cask strength, this whisky has distinctive aromas rich caramel and vanilla. A robust and pleasantly aggressive palate is highlighted by fall spices and oak that leaves a long lasting finish for well over a minute.

Bourbon Whiskey Finished in Port Barrels 90 proof

A beautiful ruby and amber color. Robust, fruity, nicely balanced with warm bourbon notes enhanced by a subtle port finish highlighted by aromas and flavors of raisins, vanilla, a touch of smoke and an oaky but not tannic sweet, big and spicy mouthfeel with a long, pleasant finish.

THE PROJECT SERIES

For all of our fans who appreciate the artistry and craftsmanship behind Boondocks, here's something fun. The Project Series will introduce us to something new and unique in the world of whiskey. Like everything made at Boondocks, the Project Series is lovingly overseen by Dave, the man behind the brand (Dave still blushes every time we refer to him as Whisky Advocate Lifetime Achievement Award winner, Dave Scheurich). Consider it a boon from Boondocks, something extra and unique. But don't consider it too long, grab a glass and a friend, pick a rocking chair, bar stool or lounge chair, and enjoy.

Peaty Tang

Color: Rich gold

Nose: Heathery smoke balanced with subtle floral tones

Palate: Gentle peat flavor with a hint of malt nuttiness

Finish: Lingering smoke and peat with a touch of sweetness

Conclusion: A great beginner for people looking to try peaty whisky

94 POINTS - A gentle coating of vaguely sweet peat that multiplies in intensity and spice. The finish is and not a little oaky...unusually dry for a smoky malt. A bit more than a "tang", believe me!

🍷 Jim Murray The Whisky Bible, 2008

14 Years Old Non Chill-Filtered

Color: Pale Gold

Nose: Delicate, soft and creamy with light floral malt and some sweetness

Palate: Elegant, round, soft and gentle. Clean malt with some creamy sweetness

Finish: Long and creamy, tending to dry with slight peppery tones

95 POINTS - Just how many variations on a honeydew theme can you get? Here I count at least five, each wave coming in after the other; medium length but sheer quality all the way. Bird's custard mixing dreamily with drier, playfully spiced, oaky not a single weakness. Just magnificent whisky bottled the way it is meant to be.

🍷 Jim Murray The Whisky Bible - 2012

10 Years Old

Color: Pale Amber

Nose: Soft, gentle, and delicate. Some sweetness and toffee

Palate: Full flavor, nutty with spicy overtones

Finish: Long

Conclusion: A soft and gentle introductory whisky

Color: Warm Gold

Nose: Round, creamy, with subtle hints of sherry sweetness

Palate: Soft, smooth and elegant style with delicate sherry presence

Finish: Mellow, soothing

95.5 POINTS - About the cleanest sherry nose I have seen in a long time. Excellent spice delivery rounds off sherry marriage beautifully. Wonderfully long and seductive with the finish remaining busy and balanced.

🍷 Jim Murray The Whisky Bible - 2008

21 Years Old

Color: Harvest Gold

Nose: Outstanding mature depth with a rich marriage of honey-sweetness, pears and peaches and rose-petal floralness. Into the mix approach delightful hints of vanilla and cigar box spiciness.

AGED 21 YEARS

The nose exudes maturity, with orange blossom honey, summer fruits and new mown hay frolic with a delicate nougat sweetness. A subtle balance of malty sweetness and spicy oak tones on the palate. Mature fruit cake flavours emerge, tinged also with hints of cigar box. Contrives to be light yet complex. The finish is drying without hurry, with climbing spiciness.

Tomintoul Tlàth

is the result of a very careful selection of individual casks. The hand-chosen collection consists of whiskies of various ages matured in first-class American oak bourbon barrels. Tlàth has a golden straw color, and a nose that is quintessentially Speyside; light, with some sweet toffee and vanilla and hints of mint leaf and citrus peel.

The taste is light and creamy, with lively white pepper and some oak-driven spiciness dance on the tongue and background layers of nutmeg and toasted vanilla. The finish is spicy with notes of shortbread and fresh mint.

LEGEND OF KREMLIN

PREMIUM RUSSIAN VODKA

The Legend

Our legend begins in the subterranean vaults of a monastery where the Kremlin now stands. A mysterious monk known only as Isidore is the first to harness the essence of succulent fruits and cereal grains to create this alluring elixir.

For years it remains unknown to anyone outside of Moscow, until tales of this mystical spirit spread to outlying regions.

Our Craft

Today, modern techniques and forces of nature come together to bring this legendary tradition to you. We begin with luxurious wheat grain vodka, and infuse it with spring water from our distillery's own artesian well. When mixed in ancestral copper vats, these elements harmonize to create a rich and refined texture, resulting in a vibrant expression of artistry and tradition.

Explore The Taste

To understand the flavor of Legend of Kremlin is to journey into the history of Russian achievements, for the story of vodka is the story of Russia. Locally harvested oatmeal and honey along with nutrient-rich soil impart incomparable savor to our Vodka. Earthy and lush, with undercurrents of natural spices, Legend of Kremlin's complex and sumptuous taste reflects the history and region from which it was forged.

ALCOHOL CONTENT: 40%

AROMA: Inhale the bouquet as you briefly swirl it in your glass. It will have a creamy, slightly sweet aroma.

COLOR: Hold up the glass, clarity and luminescence are key.

TASTE: Soft, and smooth. Slight peppery finish.

LOUIS ROYER

V.S.O.P.

Young, vivacious, natural, fresh, fruity: The Louis Royer VS Cognac will surprise you with its softness. This is the result of the "very special" attention it receives during its development. To acquire the Cognac appellation and the VS (Very Special) status, the youngest eaux-de-vie used in the blend must be at least two years old. For Louis Royer this limit is merely the beginning. VS has been made with considerably more refined eaux-de-vie.

Louis Royer VSOP Cognac possesses the qualities usually only found in older cognacs. Its smoothness and excellent balance of fruity aromas and woody notes create an expressive cognac. It is both hearty and mature, rich in aromatic notes. The gains in complexity at every sip surely make it one of the best VSOP Cognacs.

Rarely has a cognac been as celebrated as this one, receiving prestigious international awards year after year. The Louis Royer Master Blender has doubtlessly created what would be considered a masterpiece in other art forms. It is a symphony of ever revealing fruity, floral, spicy and woody notes, making it a master cognac. As with any great work of art, once it is discovered it should remain with you for a long time.
